Immigration Firm Continues Commitment to HR Professionals

Concord, N.H. — April 16, 2009 — GoffWilson, a comprehensive immigration law firm with offices in New Hampshire and France, announced today that the firm will be a major sponsor of the 11th Annual Granite State Human Resource Conference (GSHRC), taking place at the Center of New Hampshire-Radisson Hotel, downtown Manchester, NH, Tuesday, May 12, 2009. The GSHRC, one of the most popular Human Resource events in New Hampshire, involves all nine human resource chapters and affiliates across New Hampshire, as well as other top-level HR leaders.

Speakers at this year's conference include Attorney Jim Reidy of Sheehan Phinney Bass + Green, Connie Czychowski of Northeast Delta Dental, and Keynote Speaker Bert Jacobs of Life is Good.

"It is an honor to be part of the Granite State Human Resource Conference, one of the premier HR events in New Hampshire," said John R. Wilson, President of GoffWilson, and a member of the Global Panel of the national Society for Human Resource Management. "Partnering with GSHRC and Human Resource organizations across the state allows GoffWilson to carry on our deep commitment to education for Human Resource Professionals in New Hampshire and nationally."

Participants of the day-long conference have the opportunity to earn up to 6.25 hours of general recertification credit from the Human Resource Certification Institute (HRCI), 2.5 hours of which have been approved for strategic hours.
